

FISH, WILDLIFE, AND LANDS BRANCH
Application for Temporary Transfer of Big Game Allocation

All temporary transfer applications are subject to the review and approval of the Ministry of Environment.

The Ministry of Environment reserves the right to reject or deny any applications.

Allocations can only be temporarily transferred by the primary holder of the allocations and must be allocated in their entirety by species. Temporarily transferred allocations cannot be transferred further by any temporary allocation holders.

All applications must be received by July 31, 2021 and temporary transfers of allocations expire March 31, 2022.

Please fill out the form below in its entirety. For the purposes of this application, the primary allocation holder refers to the outfitter who currently holds the allocation. The temporary allocation holder refers to the outfitter applying to receive the temporary transfer of an allocation.
