

SCPO Marketplace – Temporary Allocation Posting - Conditions and Terms

The purpose of this document is to define the terms under which Saskatchewan outfitters may have listings posted to SCPO's Temporary Assignment of Allocation space on the Marketplace.

Eligibility – outfitters that are licensed in the province of Saskatchewan are eligible to have their listings posted on the Marketplace, subject to meeting the conditions set by SCPO.

Listing Fees – all listing fees are waived for the term of the pilot program (December 2022)

General Terms – the general terms are as follows.

1. Outfitters' listing must have a real interest in the program – no prospecting.
2. Each listing must clearly present an item directly relevant to the business of outfitting.
3. Outfitters will complete the profile form as required, committing to ensuring all content is valid and sets a truthful representation of the interest.
4. Postings will be restricted to single items, or multiples of a single item.
5. The listing term will be three months at which time SCPO will notify the outfitter.

Commitment of the Outfitter

1. The outfitter will recognize the posting terms and process.
2. If the allocation is no longer available, or the outfitter is no longer interested in finding an allocation, the outfitter will notify SCPO and request the listing be removed.

Posting Process

All submissions will be reviewed by SCPO site administrator to ensure compliance with guidelines and terms. The following steps outline the posting process.

Step One – Completion of Online Posting Form

The outfitter completes and submits the online posting form. The link for this form is located on SCPO's website, on the Marketplace page. The posting form includes both mandatory and optional fields. Mandatory fields must be completed before the form can be submitted.

Step Two – Review by Program Administrator

The posting form is reviewed by SCPO's Program Administrator. The outfitter will be advised of any relevant changes made to the posting information, and will be required to confirm knowledge and acceptance of these changes.

Step Four – Posting

The listing is posted. Should the outfitter wish to make changes to the listing once it is live, the outfitter will need to request these changes through email to admin@scpo.ca. An administration fee may be applied for this service.

SCPO reserves the right to modify these terms and conditions without advance notice to the members. This listing service and administration is provided free to SCPO members.
